

I am writing to express my concern over Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election in an unfair and lopsided effort to sway voters.

As a media outlet, Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest rather than self servingly using multiple markets to project a one sided view to benefit their own needs.

Sinclair's actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them. They show why the license renewal process needs to involve more than a returned postcard. Thank you very much for your attention to this matter.
Sincerely, Randy Prude
